

Mary Scott, ally to Indigenous community, recognised during National Day for Truth and Reconciliation celebrations

Mary Scott, long-time member, and past president of the University Women's Club of Winnipeg (UWC), was recently recognised as an "Ally" for her allyship work in our Indigenous community. She was presented with a Star Blanket, Eagle Feather, and Ribbon Skirt at a ceremony at Ma Mawi.

On November 27, at 10:30 am, using a Sharing Circle format, Mary will discuss her experience as an ally, and will bring her Star Blanket for the UWC members to see. Tammy Christensen, executive director of Ma Mawi, along with Joy Hurst, current president of the Canadian Federation of University Women, will also be in attendance.

The Sharing Circle, opportunity for interviews and photographs, as well as refreshments will be available at the Club's headquarters: Ralph Connor House, 54 West Gate, Winnipeg.

Media welcome. Please RSVP or for more information call Debby Brown, UWC Communications Chair, (204) 290-0585, or debbybrown335@icloud.com before Friday, November 24.

(-30-)

"Ma Mawi Wi Chi Itata provides services within Treaty 1 Territory - homeland of the Métis Nation and traditional lands of our Anishinaabeg, Anishiniwak, Ininiwak, Dakota, Dene, and Inuit relatives."

The University Women's Club brings women together through advocacy, scholarships and enriching social activities. Bringing women together to learn, share, grow, and thrive.
uwcwpgmb.com